Item 8.01. Other Events.

On August 31, 2022, at a meeting of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Assure Holdings Corp. (the “Company”), the Board’s Nomination and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) reported to the Board that the Committee had reviewed recent news that Mr. Preston Parsons, a director of the Company, had transferred his personal residence into a limited liability company, which the Committee understands has Mr. Parsons’ residence as its only asset, and immediately following such transfer, the limited liability company filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition in response to pre-foreclosure proceedings on the residence by a lender of Mr. Parsons. Mr. Parsons did not personally file for bankruptcy. The Committee concluded that the cumulative effect of the above actions of Mr. Parsons in combination with a number of previously considered past actions gave rise to the appearance of a lack of judgment and raised doubts regarding Mr. Parsons’ ability to continue to act in the best interests of the Company and in accordance with the Company’s Code of Conduct and Ethics. Therefore, the Committee requested that Mr. Parsons resign from the Board immediately. Mr. Parsons disagreed with the Committee’s conclusion and declined to resign from the Board.
